Watch the Times for the programme of the grand concert to be given at the Barre opera house Saturday evening, Oct. 7th, by Miss Tina Crawford, the famous contralto and Miss Agnes Hyde, reader and impersonator. Assisted by the Barclay Sisters (Highland dancers). Tickets are now on sale by the amusement committee of Clan Gordon and will go on sale at the Red Cross Pharmacy Thursday morning, Oct. 5th, and will continue on sale there until six o'clock Saturday evening, Oct. 7th. Admission 25, 35 and 50 cents. This is what the Catholic Observer says: "Miss Crawford has a fine contralto voice and knows well how to use it. Her rendering of 'Dark Lochnagar', 'Eileen Alannah', and 'Come Back to Erin', drew loud outbursts of applause from the large audience. Her pronunciation is so perfect that every word could be heard at the furthest corner of the large auditorium, lending an additional charm to the excellent singing." Of Miss Hyde the Amesbury Daily Mass. says: "Miss Hyde read 'The Cotter's Saturday Night' as we have never heard it before. Her expressions and gestures put an interpretation into this immortal poem that brought out every thought of the poet. Surely the praises of Miss Hyde cannot be sung too highly, for her rendering of every selection was done in the same masterly manner, bringing out round after round of applause."

New Cure for Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. STENOGRAPHER BRIDE.

Broker's Wedding Gift, Check for $100, 000 and Gema.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 4.—Miss Helen Van Nimwegen of this city was married yesterday to Augustus Meaher of Mobile, Ala., who is reputed to be wealthy.

The bride, who is a tall, attractive blonde, until recently was employed as a stenographer in an office in Wall street, New York. It was there, in July last, that she first met her future husband.

Mr. Meaher had been paying attention to the daughter of a broker, and he came from his home in the South at that time with matrimonial intentions. As soon as he saw the stenographer he fell in love with her and his interest in the broker's daughter vanished.

Mr. Meaher's wedding gift to his bride was a check for $100,000 and a suburn of diamonds. The maid of honor also received a present of diamonds from him.

Rest, Health and Comfort to Mother and Child.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays all pain, and cures wind colic. Perfectly safe in all cases. ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

NEW SECRETARY OF STATE.

Mr. Root Formally Takes Up Duties of Office.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Elihu Root of New York yesterday formally took up the duties of the office of secretary of state. He came early to the state department, as did Mr. Bacon, the new assistant secretary, and they were presented to Mr. Loomis, the retiring assistant secretary. Naturally there was much for Mr. Loomis to discuss with Mr. Root and Mr. Bacon, and it remained for the retiring officer to place them in possession of a multitude of facts connected with important pending diplomatic issues. It probably will require at least ten days' time to complete the turning over of this class of business, and consequently Mr. Bacon has not yet taken the oath of office, in order not to displace Mr. Loomis officially.

Senator Proctor was an early caller at the department. After his departure the various heads of divisions in the State department were presented to their new chief.
